DRIVING DIRECTIONS

FIND THE CACHE WITHOUT GPS:

From the parking lot, take the walkway in front of the Welcome Center to your right to the trailhead. Follow the east side of the Red Wilderness Trail from north to south until you reach a wood bench branded with the letters "TNC DWP." The cache is at the base of the small oak tree behind the bench. Continue to follow the Red Wilderness Trail back to the Welcome Center.

(HIKE: 2.5 mi loop)

Note: Take the spur off the red trail to visit the Lake Russell lakefront. (Adds .25 mi. to your hike)

THINGS TO SEE

Home to more than 1,000 species of plants and animals, the Preserve is an essential part of the Everglades ecosystem and contains 3,500 acres of restored wetlands. Visitors might spot a breeding pair of endangered red-cockaded woodpeckers in a tree nest cavity or one of the 27 other species, like lizards and frogs, that benefit from the shelter of nest cavities the birds are no longer using. Visitors can also learn about how ranching is deeply tied to the Preserve's history and how prescribed fires preserve the flourishing habitats.
